Donna (Younkin) Logan's Notebooks

In memory of Donna (Younkin) Logan
January 4, 2006

From the late 1980s until 1996, Donna (Younkin) Logan organized her research findings into three-ring binders devoted to many of the earliest Younkin pioneers of southwestern Pennsylvania: Henry, Jacob, Frederick, John, Herman as well as Rudolph of Ohio, and cousins in Northampton County, PA. After Donna's untimely death on January 4, 2006, Donna's sister Jean entrusted genealogist Mark A. Miner with Donna's three-ring binders. The expectation was that Younkin cousins would scan the binders in high resolution and share the binders electronically and widely.

Donna's sister Jean and her husband Jim Miller initially scanned the four volumes of Jacob Younkin books. From 2018 to 2020, many Younkin cousins helped with the scanning of thousands of pages in Donna's other three-ring binders. Linda Marker of Rockwood, PA placed the resulting folders of JPEG graphic image files in a OneDrive folder. She distributed links to the OneDrive folder online at the National Younkin Younken Youngkin Family Reunion page on Facebook.

In late 2024, Mark T. Youngkin combined hundreds of image files in each scanned book folder creating one PDF file for each of Donna's nine notebook binders or books. He added a cover page, links page, and index, if available, then compressed each PDF book file to a manageable size. He placed the nine reduced size PDF files in a OneDrive folder with the link to the folder distributed in a Facebook document and uploaded the PDF files to the Internet Archive.

These Younkin files were uploaded to Linda's one drive account, and will be available as long as the account is paid. This is a Microsoft account and will allow you to view, and download.

Remember, this is Donna's life work, her passion. Please respect that.

And, please remember the many hours of mind-numbing scanning went into the preservation of her work.

Jacob Younkin Books The Jacob files were lovingly scanned by Donna's sister Jean, and her husband, Jim Miller. There are four volumes, and 2 pages of explanations.

OBITUARY

MRS. LILLIAN YOUNKIN

Mrs. Lillian B. (Ryland) Younkin, 75, well known Grantsville resident, died Saturday morning in Hazel McGilvery hospital, Meyersdale, where she was admitted Thursday morning. Mrs. Younkin had suffered a fractured hip the previous Saturday resulting from a fall in her home. Death was attributed to complications as a result of the injury.

Mrs. Younkin, a daughter of the late Sylvester H. and Ella (Slicer) Ryland, native of Grantsville, was born in Selbysport, Md., April 15, 1867, and moved here with her parents fifty years ago. She was a lifelong active and faithful member of the Grantsville Methodist Church, and members of the W.S.-C.S. will miss their cherished member, "Lilly" in their meetings. Her husband, Charles H. Younkin, preceded her in death some years ago. Surviving are two brothers, Dr. G. Bert Ryland, Pittsburgh, Pa.; and Dr. William H. Ryland, Meyersdale dentist.

Funeral services were held here at Mrs. Younkin's home Sunday afternoon with Rev. S. D. Sigler officiating. Pallbearers were Ralph Glatfelter, Carl Miller, Dewey Yommer, Walter Younkin, Harry Younkin and Clayton Younkin. Interment was in the Grantsville cemetery.

(Rev. V. R. Gillum, local Methodist pastor, regrets that due to short notice, and his heavy schedule of services in each of the seven churches in the Methodist charge on Sunday, culminating the Week of Dedication, he was unable to be present and participate in the funeral services of this loyal member.)

MRS. ELIZABETH GARLITZ

Mrs. Elizabeth Garlitz, 89, widow of Isadore Garlitz, died Saturday morning at her home in Avilton. Funeral mass was conducted Monday, March 1, at St. Ann's church, Avilton. Funeral mass was conducted yesterday at St. Ann's church at Avilton, with the pastor as celebrant and Father Miller as assistant. Father Albany delivered the sermon. Interment was in St. Ann's cemetery, Avilton.

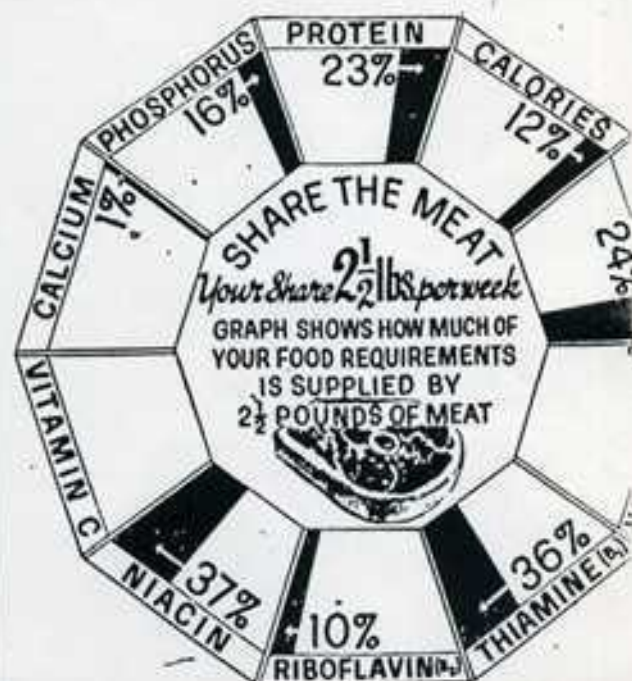

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. John McGowan and Mrs. George Winner, Midland; Mrs. John Newman, Everett, Washington; Clarence, Arvil, and Wilford of Avilton. Forty-three grandchildren and forty great-grandchildren also survive.

MARTIN CASPER GEORG

Martin Casper Georg, 50, son of John and Sivilla Diehl Georg, born at Keyser's Ridge, Md., July 2, 1893, died Feb. 27, at Akron, O. He was a veteran of the First World War.

Surviving brothers and sisters are Melchor Georg and Henry Georg of Grantsville; Mrs. Henry

WILLIS GEORGE YOUNKIN

Willis George Younkin, 41, of Grantsville, a veteran of World War II, died at the Hazel McGilvery Hospital, Meyersdale, Tuesday morning, May 4, of complications, the result of injuries he received in a sawmill accident April 7, at the mill of his brother-in-law, Carl Richter, near Grantsville.

Mr. Younkin was caught in the saw which severed his left arm and inflicted body bruises. He was a patient in the hospital from that time until his death.

He was born in Grantsville November 15, 1907, the son of the late George and Susan Younkin. He attended the public school in Grantsville and was a member of the Lutheran Church.

He entered the Army March, 1941, served four years with the 334th Airborne Medical Corps, spent 21 months overseas and was in six major battles.

After he was discharged, September 9, 1945, he returned to Grantsville and took employment as a sawmill worker with Mr. Richter. He married Miss Hilda Catherine Platter, daughter of Orvan and Minnie Platter, September 7, 1948.

He is survived by his wife, three sisters, Mrs. James Livingston and Mrs. Nina Patterson of Clarksburg, W. Va., and Mrs. Carl Richter of Grantsville, and one brother, Floyd Younkin, Louisa, Ky.

Funeral services were held at the Grantsville Lutheran Church Friday afternoon, with the Rev. George E. Bowersox, Jr., pastor, and the Rev. Ross Speicher, pastor of the Maple Glen Brethren Church officiating. Music was furnished by the church choir.

Burial was in the Grantsville cemetery where full military rites were accorded him by the American Legion Post No. 214. Commander Wayne Durst was in charge. Chaplain Ray Jenkins read the burial service.

Out of town relatives who attended the funeral were Floyd Younkin, Louisa, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. James Livingston, Mrs. Nina Patterson and son Donald Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kenney, all of Clarksburg, W. Va.

CORA ELLEN YOUNKIN

Miss Cora Ellen Younkin, 69, died early Saturday morning, May 14, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Livengood, Grantsville, where she had been living since last fall. She had been ill for the past month.

She was born in Grantsville January 10, 1878, the daughter of the late Cyrus and Julia Ann Fortell, and resided here most of her life, excepting the eight years she made her home with her sister, Mrs. Mae Messersmith of Lester, Pa. She was a member of the Grantsville Lutheran Church.

Surviving are two brothers, Milton and Thomas Younkin, Grantsville; one sister, Mrs. Messersmith of Lester, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at the Winterberg Funeral Home Monday afternoon with the Rev. George Bowersox officiating. Mrs. Harry Bender, Mrs. Harold Miller and Mrs. Harry Younker sang several favorite selections. The pall bearers were Daniel Klotz, Olen Yoder, Herbert Layman and George Dieffenbach. Interment in the Grantsville Cemetery.

William Bender read the minutes and the meeting closed with three more hymns by the Berkeys.

Pastor Cale gave the benediction, and the men had a nice fellowship with one another.

Mrs. Ora Younkin, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wable and Joanne Walker attended the pig roast that was given by Mr. and Mrs. Troy Margroff at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Margroff.

Rev. Allan Younkin of Wensak, New Jersey, attended the Younken reunion and visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Younkin.

Dear Mr. Younkin:

I am writing to you on behalf of David R. Younkin of Columbus, Ohio. Mr. Younkin is seeking to locate relatives for the purpose of learning more about his family with whom he has lost contact over the years.

Mr. Younkin was born in Akron, Ohio on 2/7/58, the third child of Earl Clarence Younkin and Jennie Strhoya Younkin.

If you believe that you are related to Mr. Younkin and would like to contact him please telephone or write to the above address. Thank you.

Sincerely,

RE: David R. Younkin

Dear Ms. Logan:

Thank you for your letter, copy of the Younkin Family News Bulletin and your kind offer to help David locate his family members. David's interest is in finding immediate family members, especially, his siblings: Roger, Albert and Brenda, rather than exploring his family history.

David was separated from his family at an early age when he was placed in foster care. To the best of his knowledge, David believes his father to be deceased and that his mother may be living in Arizona. His sister, Brenda, may reside in Akron, Ohio, but he has no knowledge of his brothers.

David would appreciate very much your placing a query in the news bulletin. Please find a photograph of David enclosed.

Thank you again for your kindness.

Sincerely,

Dear Donna:

Thank you for the information concerning David's grandmother and especially for the article you wrote for the News Bulletin about David.

Yes, David did have a happy reunion with his sister and they continue to correspond.

I have forwarded a copy of your letter and article to Brenda along with your name and address.

Thank you again for your kind interest in helping David to locate family members!

Portage man suspected of abducting son

Do we claim this one?

By MICHAEL DEXLER
PLAIN DEALER REPORTER

Authorities are looking for a Portage County man on parole suspected of abducting his 7-year-old son from an Akron shopping mall Saturday.

Portage County Sheriff P. Ken Howe said yesterday that a warrant has been issued for the arrest of Roger L. Younkin of Ravenna on a charge of child stealing.

The boy's mother, Mary Templeton, said her estranged husband took off with the child, Travis Younkin, when a custody supervisor assigned to ensure the safety of the child went to the bathroom at Chapel Hill Mall sometime Saturday afternoon, leaving the two alone.

The custody supervisor, whom Templeton identified as Lillian Stetler, works for Highland Homes Health Care, an agency in Ravenna. Stetler could not be reached for comment, and officials at the agency did not return calls yesterday.

Late yesterday afternoon, Templeton said she received a call and heard her son's whimpering voice, and nothing else. She said she assumed it was a call from her husband.

"I want my baby back," she said in a shaking voice, adding that she feared for Travis' safety in the hands of Younkin, who carries a gun "24 hours a day," she said.

Authorities from the Akron Police Department and the Portage County Sheriff's Department are working on the case, said an Akron police spokesman.

Templeton said she was told of the events by the custody supervisor's boss — whose name she only remembered as Susan — later that day, and was shocked to discover that her son was allowed to be alone with Younkin.

"She came and said, 'Travis is gone. Roger took him.'"

Templeton estimated that the abduction took place about 3 p.m. on Saturday. She said Stetler knew of her husband's background. "She left his sight, knowing what kind of man Roger is."

Records with the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections show Younkin was in prison from Oct. 30, 1987, to Feb. 19, 1989, on a borhood to become part of a diocesan pastoral training center at Borromeo College, 28700 Euclid Ave., Wickliffe. A decline in enrollment at the seminary, which graduated its last class on Saturday, prompted the move.

The Rev. John Wright, the diocese's financial and legal secretary, said yesterday that the diocese had a signed agreement to sell St. Mary's to the Hitchcock center, but no date had been set for the transfer.

Barlow McWilliams, president of the center's board of trustees, confirmed the property was being purchased for $800,000.

"We are delighted to acquire the St. Mary's building," McWilliams said. "We will be combining all of our operations there, and because of the dormitory space, we will be able to offer inpatient care to about twice as many women as we now do."

The township's 40-member volunteer Fire Department was an independently run firefighters association until last July, when the township assumed control over it. At last night's meeting, the trustees assembled the first township-governed chain of command.

The trustees approved six of Hagerty's seven nominees for officer positions. But the trustees balked at naming Lt. Brian Kelly a captain, as Hagerty recommended. Kelly, a 13-year firefighter, remains a lieutenant.

"Hey, we went along with him 90%," Rohlik said of Hagerty. "But he wants 100%. That's the problem. This is a township fire department — it doesn't work that way."

But several firefighters apparently are ready to resign. One woman on the force said so loudly as a crowd of firefighters left the trustees meeting angrily after Rohlik denied Hagerty a chance to voice his objections.

One firefighter who asked not to be named said after the meeting that an exodus is likely because Knowles, a three-year firefighter, "is not qualified to be captain."

Kelly had crossed swords with the trustees, after the township elected to require advanced emergency medical technician training of its officers, Rohlik said. Kelly resigned in protest as a squad leader and trustees had no intention of reappointing him after that, Rohlik said.

Also named captain was Dave Goodyear. Appointed as lieutenants were Frank Cseh, Scott Schmoll, Milan Nerad and Gary Lisowski. The trustees named Dennis Young assistant chief, and appointed Russ Kintop as engineer.

concealed-weapon conviction in Summit County.

Templeton's lawyer, William D. Lentz, said a November court order allowing the father visitation was "modified" in January to involve supervision of his custody rights. The reason, Lentz said, was "concern for the safety of the child."

Lentz said the couple was married on Aug. 23, 1990. Templeton filed for divorce Sept. 5, 1990, but the decree is pending.

There was confusion all day yesterday about exactly where the warrant had been entered, and if a warrant had in fact existed for the arrest of Younkin.

An Akron Municipal Court clerk said yesterday afternoon that a warrant for Younkin's arrest was "dismissed" earlier in the day because the matter really involved Portage County law enforcement officials — even though the incident occurred in Akron. Edward Duvall, who is in charge of missing persons investigations for the Akron Police Department, said that any warrant would be entered into a National Crime Index computer, so it really didn't matter.

If Younkin crosses state lines with the child, the FBI will immediately become involved, police said.

Ravenna man faces child stealing, four other charges

A Ravenna man faces a child stealing charge following his Thursday arrest by the Portage County Sheriff's Department.

Roger Lee Younkin, 39, of Ravenna was charged with child stealing, carrying a concealed weapon, having a firearm while under disability and two contempt of court charges.

Younkin is charged with removing his son Roger Lee Younkin from a restaurant in Summit County May 11 during a supervised visit.

Officials later recovered the boy in Tennessee and he was returned to his mother's custody.

Deputies arrested Younkin Thursday morning. He was allegedly armed with a .45 caliber handgun when apprehended.

Death of Mrs. Sarah Younkin.

Mrs. Sarah Younkin, widow of the late Levi Younkin, whose death took place about seven years ago, died at her home near Draketown, on Friday, November 7, aged 58 years 3 months and 18 days, after a long lingering illness from dropsy. The deceased lady, whose maiden name was Sarah Moore, was a life-long resident of Lower Turkeyfoot township, where she was respected by a large circle of friends for her sterling qualities. She is survived by eight children—Milton and Elmer Younkin of Connellsville; Harry, Dewey and Clyde, at home; Catherine, Perryopolis; Josephine and Anna at home. She is also survived by one brother, Harrison Moon of Draketown, and three sisters—Mrs. John Lint, Mrs. Abraham Lint and Mrs. Morgan Colbert, Dawson. The funeral took place at 1:30 Sunday afternoon at the Jersey church, Rev. L. W. LePage officiating. Interment in Jersey cemetery.

Wall Collapses.

Kills Firemen

SPANGLER, Pa. (AP) — A state fire marshal is investigating a downtown fire that killed two volunteer firemen and critically injured two others New Year's Day in this Cambria County community.

Killed when a wall collapsed were Frank Kinkad, 47, and John DeDea, 32, both of nearby Patton.

The fire is believed to have started in a two-story building housing a variety store and apartments. It spread to two vacant buildings.

Glasgow Mourns Soccer Disaster

By LIAM REGAN

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP) — This city, normally divided by fierce sports rivalries, united Sunday in mourning 66 soccer fans who perished in Britain's worst sporting disaster.

A bar near Ibrox Stadium, where the fans were trampled or crushed in a mass dash for the exits after a soccer game was sinking down like the rest of us.

"Bodies kept piling up and then I passed out. I came to at the bottom of the stairs, lying face to face with a dead man beside me."

1916 Andrew J. Moon. 1916

Andrew J. Moon, a life long resident of Lower Turkeyfoot Township, died at his home near Confluence on Tuesday morning, July 25, at the age of 80 years, 4 months and 10 days. While in good health for a man of his advanced age, for several years his friends could observe the feebleness of old age gradually undermining his usual good health. His last illness dates from April. During the last four weeks he was confined to his bed.

Andrew J. Moon was born on the farm on which he died, the date of his birth being March 15, 1836. He was a son of Jacob Moon who was a direct descendant in the second generation of James Moon, a pioneer settler of the Jersey colony and a soldier of the Revolutionary War and one of the six soldiers whose remains repose in the Jersey Cemetery. He married Harriet Younkin, June 13, 1874. She preceded him into the grave Nov. 25, 1908. To this marriage were born nine children, two of whom died in childhood. The seven surviving children are Mrs. Kate Smith, James Moon, Floyd Moon, Bruce Moon, Mrs. John Hostetler of Draketown, Mrs. Laura Peters of Markleton, and Mrs. Annie Younkin, wife of H. C. Younkin, a B. & O. conductor, of South Connellsville. He is also survived by 32 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. He was the last surviving member of a large family. His last surviving brother, Ellsha Moon, died about four years ago.

Andrew Moon was a member of the Jersey Baptist Church for many years and was a true type of those God-fearing, industrious and honest men of the Turkeyfoot region of a generation of whom most have passed away. He was a devoted husband and father, a good neighbor and led a pure, clean life for four score years.

The funeral took place Thursday afternoon, July 27. Short services were held at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Hostetler, where he died, followed by further services in the Jersey church. Rev. L. W. LePage and Rev. Wm. Grants officiating; interment in the Jersey cemetery.

Terry and Elaine Younkin, Rockwood, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary this month.

Mrs. Younkin, the former Helen Elaine Leasock, was born in Quemahoning Township. She is the daughter of Stephen Leasock, Stoystown.

Terry was born in Rockwood. He is the son of Julia Younkin Kaloduka, Baltimore, Md.

They were married in the parsonage of the Gospel Church by the Rev. C.H. Wakeman, Cumberland, Md.

The couple first lived as newlyweds in Rockwood, and have lived at their present home for 22 years.

They attend St. Luke's Lutheran Church in Rockwood.

They are the parents of two children:

Jill, married to Thomas Odorcich, Beale Air Force Base, Cal., and Kristi M. Younkin, Rockwood.

The anniversary was celebrated Sept. 16 at the Grace United Methodist Church, Somerset.

Terry enjoys gardening and his wife, sewing, crafts and crocheting.

In Memoriam

In Loving Memory of HENRY YODER, who passed away 9 years ago, today, December 19, 1969:

Your gentle face and pleasant smile,
With sadness we recall.

You had a kind word for each,
And died beloved by all.

You are not forgotten loved one,

Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memories last.

We will remember thee.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore,

Shah's Foes: A

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — The opponents of the Shah of Iran are a varied assortment of radical Islamic zealots, disgruntled workers, leftists and rightists and those confused by the monarch's crash program to transform Iran into a world industrial power.

They are united only in their desire to force Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi from power and remove what many consider a dictatorship propped up by the 430,000-man army and foreign governments dependent on Iran's oil.

But, a Western diplomat said, "What it really comes down to is a personal and bitter feud between two men — Khomeini and the Shah."

Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini, spiritual leader of Iran's 32 million Shiite Moslems, is the mastermind behind the campaign against his lifelong enemy, the Shah. He directs the struggle from self-imposed exile in a Paris suburb and seeks to establish an Islamic republic in his homeland.

Khomeini, 73, claims the Shah's father, Reza the Great, had Khomeini's father killed and insists that his own son, who apparently died of natural causes last year in Iraq, was another victim of the monarch's regime.

Khomeini commands his own army of 100,000 mullahs, or Moslem holy men, whose influence reaches into every NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Gov. Ray Blanton said Monday he had accepted the resignations of two assistants arrested on federal charges of extortion and conspiracy to sell paroles, commutations and extraditions.

Blanton, who leaves office in January, said the resignations of his legal counsel, T. Edward Slak, and extradition officer, Charles Benson, were effective immediately.

"...If they are proved to be guilty as charged, this incident will be a great affront to the dignity of all Tennesseans," the governor

Blanton, Slak, a third aide and a cabinet member were ordered to appear Tuesday in Chancery Court to defend the practice of having an assistant sign Blanton's name to documents granting prisoners' release.

Slak, Benson and a veteran Tennessee Highway Patrol officer, who has been suspended without pay, were arrested late Friday. Through press secretary Jim Gilchrist, Blanton said he was "shocked and saddened by this matter."

In Memphis, meanwhile, FBI agent Ben Hale said "the investigation of alleged investigators declined to speculate on further arrests. U.S. Attorney Hal Hardin of Nashville said only, "No special grand jury will be convened."

In the statement on the resignations, released by Blanton's press secretary, the governor said: "The charges against these men are extremely serious. They shake the confidence of the people in the integrity of their government."

"The alleged conduct is absolutely contrary to the manner in which I have directed the legal affairs of Young was Vice President. During four years there, two sons were born, Roderyk Dwayn Young, February 14, 1951 and Roger David Young, April 28, 1953. In November 1954, they moved to Somerset. Lynn went with The Neilan Engineers, Inc. A daughter, Cheri Lynne, was born March 25, 1955, her mother's birthday.

Lois' ancestors were from Blair County, Pa. Paternal great-grandmother, Roxanna Deener, was born Dec. 13, 1868 in Williamsburg, Pa., daughter of Jacob and Sarah (McManamy) Gettemen. Lois' father, Chester N. Deter, survives, living in Williamsburg. Her mother, Della (Zimmerman) Deter, born 1899, daughter of William and Minnie (Megahan) Zimmerman, died 1973. Lois' brother, Jay, lives in Duncansville, Pa.

Lynn takes pride in his ancestry includes a grandfather, David Young, who served in Co. H, Pa. 56th Infantry, was wounded at Bull Run, had the true grit to survive the hellish conditions of a Southern prison camp, returned to his native Clearfield County, and is buried in historic Bradford Cemetery.

Lynn's maternal grandfather, Alfred Buck, was a solid Clearfield County farmer, near Shaverville. In early life he worked the woods all winter and in spring would brave the Susquehanna River on rafts to Williamsport. He worked his fields until he was in his 80's.

Lynn feels his family was a vital part of Clearfield County's history. One grandfather served in the Civil War, one was a substantial farmer, and his father, B.I. Young, was one of two men who broke ground for Harbison-Walker's Barrett Brickyard. Later was superintendent of two quarries in Blair County.

Lynn's quarter-century work on engineering projects in a ten county area is in development, and improving old water systems. The largest system, Highland Sewer & Water Authority, Johnstown, Pa. included the 2,000 million gallon reservoir and a 5 million gallon per day treatment plant, the largest in Central Pennsylvania — Beaverdam Run Reservoir, near Beaverdale. He was a vital part of the reconstruction following the devastating 1977 Johnstown Flood.

Dwayn lives in Jennerstown, a diesel mechanic for Highland Equipment Co., is married to Catherine Pastavich of Johnstown, has two children, Marina Lynne and Daniel David.

Roger, a graduate of California State College, B.A. in Conservation, lives in Rockwood, runs the Rockwood Water Co., is married to Laurie Snyder of Garrett, Pa.

Cheri, a graduate of Hagerstown Business College, Associate in Arts degree, lives at home and is an Official Court Reporter for the 16th Judicial District, Somerset Court House, Somerset, Pa.

The Youngs are members of Calvary United Methodist Church since 1954. Lois teaches the Jr.-Sr. High Class.

THE YOUNKIN FAMILY

My great-grandfather was Henry Younk. He was born in Draketown, Pa. in 1862. He was married to Ida Hyatt. They had eight children: Maudie Younk Gwert, married to Frank Gwert; Margaret Younk Burnsworth, married to Arie Burnsworth; Alice Younk Sayers, married to George Sayers; Mattie Younk Ohler, married to Alex Ohler; James

Eddie Beeman Family — Eddie, Mary, Candy, Sandy, Eddie, Jr., and Randy

Younk, married to Hazel McNair; Clarence Younk, married to Olive Sayers; Charles, who was never married; Joseph Younk, who was my grandfather.

Joseph Younk was born in Draketown in 1903. He was married March 12, 1926, to Mary Miller. They had one child, Joseph, Jr. Joseph, Sr. died April 14, 1973. Joseph, Jr. was born in Confluence, September 14, 1926. He went to Confluence school in 1932. Joseph, Mary and Joseph, Jr. lived in Confluence for 20 years. They moved in 1946 and moved to Ursina, where they bought a house above the Ursina Cemetery for $1,500.

Joseph, at the age of 24, married Katherine Friend Casteel in Friendsville, Md., Sept. 2, 1950. They have three children and one step-child. The step-child, Thomas Casteel, is the son of the late Jackson Casteel. Joseph and Katherine's other three children are Gerald, Mary and Kenneth. Gerald married Margie Jackson from Lawton, Oklahoma. They were married March 20, 1972, in Lawton, Oklahoma, while Gerald was in the Army. They have two children: Gerald, born May 29, 1973; and Christy Lynn was born June 25, 1974. Margie is expecting a baby in August. Kenneth is not married but works at Jarmco Poultry in Rockwood, Pa.

Thomas Casteel is married to Gloria Swaney Agar. They were married in Friendsville, Md., April 17, 1976. They have one child, Matthew Eugene, born March 26, 1978. Also Thomas has a son, Thomas Glenn, by his previous marriage. He was born March 13, 1969.

Mary is married to Eddie Beeman of Meyersdale, Pa. They were married in Friendsville, Md., March 13, 1971. They have four children: Candy Marie was born July 22, 1971; Sandy Kay was born Feb. 25, 1973; Eddie Howard, Jr. was born April 16; Randy Lee was born Oct. 15, 1977. YUTZY CLAN

Our family history is one of strong religious belief in God; Amish order of the Mennonite Faith. The earliest record we have is of Peter Yutzy. He signed a ship book, December 1744, coming to Pennsylvania. Perhaps he was the father of Christian Yutzy (Jutzi) born 1754, died 1851.

His children were, Peter, 1791; Catherine, 1804, and Daniel, 1805. The records of Jacob and Joseph are both 1809 — they may have been twins. I have no date on George, but he was one of the two brothers who immigrated from Pennsylvania to Kitchener, Ont., Canada. This area is still called "Mennonite Country".

Daniel Webster and Ella Coughnour Yutzy

My grandfather was Daniel Yutzy — married Anna Brenneman. Six children were born: Mary; Catherine; Enoch; Samuel (my father); Jole and Anna. Grandmother died 24 days after Anna was born. It is believed Grandpa named the baby Anna, after Grandma died.

Grandpa married Anna's sister only one month after Grandma died, probably to look after his young family. Grandpa and Magdalena had six more children: Jeremiah; Joseph; Elizabeth; Lydia; Barbara and Simon. My dad, Samuel and Mary Lepley had twelve children: Allen; Louella; Charles; Annie; Emma; Ida; William; me, Daniel Webster (my wife was Ella Virginia-Coughnour); Mary; Nannie; (Fannie a twin, died) and Grace. When Samuel died he had living: 11 children, 35 grandchildren, and 2 great-grandchildren.

In 1902 my Dad and I made an agreement to rent his farm at $200.00 each year plus taxes and 200 bushels of lime to be spread on the farm. If my Dad worked for me, I was to pay him $0.40 a day wages. Dad retired at 66 and spent winters in Florida. He bought property in Lynn Haven, Florida; planted fruits and nut trees and a pecan and fig tree are still bearing.

I was not married and found need of a wife to help run the farm. It was easier being a school teacher, but my desire was to be a farmer. On a business trip by horseback through Bedford County, I found my dream! A slender young girl in a calico skirt, with a milk pail in each hand. It was love at first sight. We were married at her home, 2 1/2 miles north of Madley Station. The wedding reception was at my Dad's home near Pocahontas. We were blessed with eleven children: Margaret; Anna; Lillian; Joseph; Mary (died); Bertha; Roy; Pauline; Marion; Dorothy and Barbara. I kept trying for a son to keep the Yutzy name afloat; but by the time Barbara was born Ella was 45 years old, and we felt it must be the last child.

We moved near Ella's home in Bedford County where we bought a 200 acre farm. Here my family grew up, but the fond memories of childhood days in the hills around Pocahontas shall never fade. The little cemetery in the middle of the hay field has been dimmed by time. Yet there lie my grandfather, Daniel, Mother, Dad, and sisters, Annie and Fannie — when Jesus comes again, may we all meet at the Resurrection. Submitted by Barbara Yutzy Trupp

Confluence Man Drops Dead After Fighting Flames in Restaurant

Special to The Courier.

CONFLUENCE, PA., Oct. 11, 1940

A heart attack, superinduced by over exertion and near suffocation caused the death of Albert Younkin, 73 years old, Thursday afternoon as he fought a fire in the basement of the Yeagley Restaurant which caused damage of approximately 3,000.

Younkin, who had been employed as a handyman at the restaurant and looked after the furnace, among other things, was eating his evening meal as were several patrons when he smelled smoke. He went into the cellar to the furnace to investigate.

A few minutes later he staggered out of the cellar into an alleyway near Dr. T. R. Show, Harry Camp and Melvin Hynalt where he slumped to the ground, dead. Examination of the body at the funeral parlors of Charles Humbert indicated a heart attack, superinduced by over exertion and near suffocation in the smoke-filled cellar, had caused his death.

The Yeagley restaurant, operated by C. A. Frantz and Allen Groff for the past three and a half years, was formerly owned by Winfield Yeagley. The two-story frame structure is situated between Dodd Hotel and the old Riverside Hotel building.

Fearing that the blaze may get out of control and probably sweep the downtown section of this Somerset county borough, firemen from Somerset, Rockwood, Meyersdale and Grantville, Md., were called to help local volunteers. Fortunately there was no high wind at the time of the alarm.

The origin of the flames has not been determined. The fire apparently started near the furnace and may have been caused by a defective flue or chimney or possibly from an overheated furnace. The flames broke through the flooring in the restaurant and Manager Frantz and four patrons got out. However, in some strange manner the door became locked and it was necessary to break the glass for these five to leave the burning building.

Some of the furniture in an apartment over the restaurant was removed.

Deceased, who was unmarried, was born March 16, 1867, and had spent practically all of his life here. For a time he was in the lumber business but in recent years had been a handyman, looking after the furnace and otherwise helping out at the restaurant. Younkin, who roomed at the home of a sister-in-law, Mrs. Ella Younkin, is survived by two brothers, J. C. Younkin and Henry Younkin of Confluence, and two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Gerhart of Meyersdale and Mrs. Anna McClintock, of Connellsville.

The funeral service will be held Sunday afternoon, the hour to be announced later, at the home of Mrs. Ella Younkin with Rev. J. O. Martin, pastor of the Methodist Church, officiating. Interment will be in Kingwood Cemetery.

Burial will be in Jersey Cemetery.

Mrs. Younkin, whose maiden name was Conn, was born October 4, 1871, at Draketown and resided there until her marriage, August 18, 1891, to Harvey Younkin. Mr. and Mrs. Younkin founded their home at Confluence and since resided there. To the union four children were born, two of whom are deceased. Besides her husband, Mrs. Younkin is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Amanda Reid, Confluence; a son, Jacob Younkin, Mather; also two brothers, Harvey Conn, Drake-town, and Rush Conn, Star Junction. She was a member of the Methodist Church at Draketown.

Excitement Blamed For Younkin Death At Confluence Fire

Special to The Courier

CONFLUENCE, Oct. 14, 1940—Coroner F. E. Saas of Bonwell viewed the body of Albert Younkin, 73, of Confluence, after he fell dead in a Confluence alleyway during a fire in a restaurant where he had been employed as a handyman, and reported the death was due to over exertion and excitement.

The medical examiner said that Younkin collapsed and died of a heart attack which was probably superinduced by over exertion and excitement as the result of the fire which damaged the interior of the Frantz and Groff Building, adjacent to Hotel Dodds Thursday afternoon.

The coroner said Younkin was seated in the restaurant on the first floor when he smelled smoke. He rushed down the steps to the furnace room, discovered the flames and made an effort to extinguish them and then was forced to leave by a cellar exit. Upon reaching the alleyway, he collapsed.

Younkin's funeral was held Sunday afternoon.

A PIONEER IS CALLED AWAY GIRL WAS SHOT BY A FRIEND

Jacob Poorbaugh Died at Terrible Tragedy at Gathering of Young Folks in His Home in Northampton Township.

Jacob Poorbaugh, one of the oldest and best known residents of Somerset county, died at his home in Northampton township, Saturday, aged 88 years, 9 months and 21 days. Death was due to old age and general debility. Until about two years ago deceased had never been sick. Previous to that he had been accustomed to take which he had kept up for years, and was enjoying the best of health for one of his years. With the advent of cold weather late in 1907 he quit his outdoor riding and before spring had become very feeble. During the summer he grew stronger again, but since then declined until death came. He had been confined to his bed very little during that time and for the last few months had slept much at night in a favorite rocker which he seldom left during the day. Although very feeble his death came sudden and only a few minutes were with him when he passed away.

The deceased was born and spent his entire life in Somerset county. His parents with other members of the Poorbaugh family settled more than 100 years ago in the vicinity of Meyersdale and Berlin. Here they cleared small farms in the wilderness, but owing to the dense logs that hovered about the Susquehanna river and other streams in that section at that time, which rendered it impossible to harvest good crops, they abandoned the settlement. Some located near Shanksville, others went west and the parents of the deceased with others crossed the Allegheny mountains and started anew in the wilderness in what is now known as Northampton township.

The deceased was one of five brothers, all of whom spent their long lives in that community with the exception of Gideon Poorbaugh, who following his return from the civil war, located near Lincoln, Neb. All reared large families. Two of the brothers are still living. They are Gideon, of Nebraska, and John J. Poorbaugh, near Glencoe. Mathias and Samuel Poorbaugh died near Glencoe within

The little town of Humbert was the scene of a fearful tragedy on Sunday afternoon when Rosa King, aged 17 years, the daughter of Elmer King, was instantly killed by the accidental discharge of a shot gun in the hands of Harvey Snyder. At the time of the accident Miss King was in the parlor of her father's house where a party of young people had gathered to spend a portion of the afternoon. There were present Miss King, Harvey Snyder, William Wilson, Ada Younkin and Harvey Rhomesburg, all young people of the same age as Miss King. It was a gay little party, changed in an instant from liveliness and happiness to terror and grief.

Young Snyder was sitting on a chair across the room from Miss King and reaching over in a corner picked up a shot gun. He laid the gun across his knees and began fiddling with the trigger. Everyone in the room supposed the weapon was unloaded. The gun was discharged in less than a minute after Snyder picked it up, the full charge striking Miss King in the left eye and tearing a portion of her head off. The gun was a twelve gauge and was loaded with No. 4 shot. The girl fell to the floor without uttering a sound. Death was almost instantaneous.

The supposition is that the mechanism of the lock on the weapon was impaired and when the hammer was raised without the friction of the trigger the gun was discharged.

The Coroner's jury rendered a verdict of accidental death at the hands of Harvey Snyder. The funeral of Miss King was held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from the home of Miss King's grandfather, J. H. Wilson. Miss King was pretty and popular among her acquaintances.

DIRECTORS ELECTED.

Economy Telephone Company Selects Directors and Officers for the Ensuing Year.

There was a meeting of the stockholders of the Economy Telephone Company held in Reich's Hall in this city on Saturday. About three hundred men were present. The meeting was held in the Lutheran church on Sunday afternoon. The Rev. J. H. Applegate, pastor of the church, presided. The subject of the meeting was "The Significance of the Men's Missionary Movement." The services began promptly at 7:45 o'clock. The meetings of the week of prayer will conclude with on Sunday afternoon in the Lutheran church. There is something across the country a great movement known as the Laymen's Missionary Movement. The spirit of this movement has struck Meyersdale. We shall be able to catch something of its significance on Sunday afternoon. Mr. F. H. Powers, Chairman of the Deputation Committee of the Greater Pittsburgh Campaign, will be one of the speakers, and will come with some of the Pittsburgh enthusiasm. The Rev. L. H. Wolf, D. D., General Secretary of the Board of Home Missions of the Lutheran church, comes from Baltimore and will address this great gathering of men on the "Significance of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and Foreign Missions." The music will be in charge of Mr. Harry M. Cook, who has called to his assistance a large male choir. Prof. W. H. Kretschman was elected as Chairman of the Men's Rally, and John W. H. Photo, General Secretary. The committee on invitation is, W. H. Rottler, W. H. Haber, C. W. Truxal, Dr. Bruce Lighty, Geo. W. Collins, C. E. Klingensmith, Dr. W. H. Ryland, Paul Clinton, R. C. Coach Elected By Turkeyfoot Board

At a meeting of Turkeyfoot Valley Area School Board Monday night, Richard Campbell was elected by the board as junior varsity basketball coach. He is presently the school's physical education teacher.

In other action, the board approved home-bound instruction for one student. The teacher will be Mrs. Edna Swank.

Reports were made of a trip to Punxsutawney as guests of Pennsylvania Electric Co. to view several schools using electric heating. The board voted to have a cost analysis of the new Turkeyfoot elementary building prepared to determine whether electric heating should be used.

Building Delay

The new elementary building was discussed, with the board members being advised that the project was delayed pending a room schedule from Harrisburg.

It was announced that the teacher-director banquet will be held at the high school on November 17.

The public is invited to visit the schools during National Education Week, Nov. 9 to 13. Open house will be observed on Nov. 12, with the hours in the elementary building being 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. and in the high school from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Letter to the Editor

Editor Daily American:

I would like to commend you on your fine editorials.

County Teachers, "4 Kinds Of Vision" One Speaker's

Somerset County Teachers' 105th Annual Institute and the 10th annual convention of the Somerset County School Directors Association was held at Somerset Area Junior High School Monday, Nov. 2.

Dr. D. B. Bennett, executive superintendent of schools, introduced Dr. Margaret Gill, executive secretary of the National Education Association, one of the featured speakers. Dr. Berthick delivered a speech entitled the "Four Kinds of Vision."

The Four Visions

The vision of the "ways," knowledge, allows one to think about the marvels of the future. The duty to country and community is the vision of conscience. Dr. Berthick stated that vision of the heart, love, is what makes one enjoy the company and friendship of people for themselves, not what they can do for one. The forth kind of vision is the vision of the soul, which is faith.

Dr. Margaret Gill, executive secretary of the association for supervision and curriculum development, National Education Association, addressed the group of educators. Dr. Gill discussed the current trends in the curriculum of schools today. She explained the need for better student-teacher relationships.

Business Meeting

James A. Brown, president of the Somerset County Chapter of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, presided over the business meeting held during the first part of the morning sessions.

Mr. Brown, who is a member of the faculty at Shanksville-Stonycreek High School, announced the candidates for the 1965-66 year. William Webreck is the new president.

Other officers elected are: Charles E. Blocher, elementary supervisor and teacher of special education, Turkeyfoot Valley Area Schools, first vice president; Paul Beal, teacher art, Somerset Area Junior High School, treasurer; Mrs. Janet Black, Rockwood Area High School, and Eugene Donati, Jenner-Boswell Joint Elementary School, are auditors.

The assembled group observed a period of silence in memory of Miss Eben Hill, Windber Area; Leonard Goly, Rockwood Area; D. H. Bauman, Meyersdale; and Ellis Ferner, Johnstown all of whom died during the past year.

Falling tree kills Nanty Glo man

CHESTNUT RIDGE — A Nanty Glo logger was killed Monday morning when he was pinned by a falling tree in a wooded area of Cherryhill Township.

William R. Younkin, 36, was pronounced dead at 10:36 a.m. in the emergency room at Indiana Hospital, said Indiana County Coroner Thomas Streams. Death was attributed to blunt force trauma.

Younkin was employed by D and D Wood Products Company, Ebensburg.

The fatal accident occurred around 9:05 a.m. off Ray Road in the Chestnut Ridge area west of Penn Run, said state police at Indiana.

Younkin had cut a red oak tree with a 15-inch diameter, but it became caught in the branches of another tree and failed to fall, police said. While Younkin was cutting down another tree, the first tree fell on top of him.

He was found pinned beneath the oak by other workers who attempted live-saving techniques after moving the tree, police said.

Citizens Ambulance Service paramedics also worked to revive Younkin and transported him to Indiana Hospital.

Cherryhill Township Fire Department also assisted at the scene.

God chose the perfect time
He did what He thought was best
He came and stood beside you
And whispered, "Come and rest."
You bade no one a last farewell
Nor even said goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.
May you always walk in sunshine
God's love around you grow
For the happiness you gave us
No one will ever know.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Lloyd C. Younkin Fatally Injured.

An accident with a fatal termination occurred on the B. & O. R. R. near Manila station on Wednesday evening, August 4, the victim being Lloyd C. Younkin a young man born and reared in Confluence. The unfortunate young man was brakeman, and was thrown from the "steel special" near Manila, when an air hose burst stopping the train. The car ran over his leg very close to the hip, mashing the limb. The accident happened a short time before the west bound Capital Limited passed the place where the accident occurred. The train was flagged and the injured man taken on board, where he was given first aid by Dr. Wayland of Chicago a passenger on board of the fast train. On arrival of the train at Connellsville, Younkin was taken to the Connellsville State Hospital and the limb amputated above the knee and it was also found he also suffered from a punctured wound below the right shoulder. He continued in a very weak condition after the operation until Saturday morning at 6:30 when death took place at the hospital.

Lloyd C. Younkin was born at Confluence November 16, 1896, being 29 years, 8 months and 21 days at the time of his death. He was a son of John Calvin and Stella Flanigan Younkin who both survive him. Mr. Younkin attended the public school until he was old enough to take up railroading. Before the Worlds War he was employed by the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad Co., but left that position and served nearly a year over seas. On July 5th, 1921 he was married to Miss Rebecca Shultz of Rockwood who with three children survive him. After their marriage they went to live at Rockwood where they resided since. The deceased was an excellent young man, a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Confluence, the Knights of Pythias of Rockwood and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen of Connellsville. The sad demise is sincerely regretted and his many friends and neighbors felt his death as a personal bereavement. Besides his wife and parents he is survived by three children, Mary Ellen, Anna Louise and Lloyd, Jr. He is also survived by two brothers Alfred M. of Confluence, and Russell E. Younkin of Wilson, Pa., and two sisters Sue Marie, wife of Joseph A. Rogers a young business man of Pittsburgh and Dorethena wife of Rev. L. J. Ramsay a Baptist Minister of the same city.

He had been in the employment of the B. & O. R. R. and was respected both by the officials and his fellow employees. The remains were brought to his home at Rockwood on train 16 on Saturday afternoon. Funeral services were held at the home at 2 o'clock on Monday afternoon Rev. L. H. Powell officiating. Interment in the Odd Fellows cemetery at Rockwood.

Halls Celebrating Golden Anniversary

William and Mary Ellen Hall were honored at a surprise dinner in honor of their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Saturday, Feb. 6, 1993.

The event, held at Anderson's Restaurant, was hosted by the couple's children. Guests were family and friends of the couple from Port Allegany, Sabinsville, Ulysses, Berlin, and Strasburg, Va.

William Henry Hall and Mary Ellen Yaunkin were united in marriage at the Base Chapel on Maxwell Air Force Base, Montgomery, Ala., on Feb. 6, 1943.

They have two sons, William II of Strasburg, and Jerry of Ulysses; three grandchildren, Christie Lynn Hall, a senior at West Virginia

University, and William III, a freshman at Ferrum University, Virginia, and Jacob Hall of Coudersport.

Mr. Hall is retired from Texas Eastern Gas Pipeline. Mrs. Hall is retired from Penn Mutual Insurance Company. The Halls moved to Brookland in 1985, from West Chester.

On Sunday, Feb. 7, family and friends attended the morning church services at All Saints Episcopal Church of Brookland, where family members served as lectors. After the service, Mr. and Mrs. Hall were honored with a reception at the parish house, hosted by the Episcopal Church Women.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hall

Mary and William Hall

Golden date noted by former local couple

Former local residents William and Mary Ellen Hall, now residing at Ulysses, Pa., celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary recently.

Mrs. Hall, the former Mary Ellen Younkin, was born in Rockwood. She is the daughter of the late Lloyd C and Rebecca (Shultz) Younkin. William was born in Latrobe. He is the son of the late John and Nelbi Hall.

They were married Feb. 6, 1943 at the base chapel at Maxwell Air Force Base in Montgomery, Ala.

The couple first lived as newlyweds in Rockwood and later moved to West Chester.

They have lived at their present home for eight years. They are members of the All Sts. Episcopal Church.

Mary retired from Penn Mutual Insurance Co. She is a member of the Coudersport Order of the Eastern Star.

William is retired from Texas Eastern Gas Pipeline Corp. They are the parents of two children.

Rev. William H. Hall III, Strasburg, Va.; and Jerry C. Hall, Ulysses RD 1. They have three grandchildren.

The anniversary was celebrated with a surprise dinner at Anderson's Restaurant, and a morning church service at All Saints Episcopal Church. A reception was held afterward at the parish hall.

147 JOHN W. GERHARD

John W. Gerhard passed away at 7 o'clock on Tuesday evening, December 8, in the Hazel McIlvery Hospital, where he had been a patient for almost a week, suffering with an infected pancreas.

Mr. Gerhard was born in Somerset County, January 24, 1868, a son of Nelson and Sara (Nicholson) Gerhard. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sadie (Younkin) Gerhard, and these children, Clyde and Paul, of Meyersdale; Nelson, of San Francisco, Cal., William, of Windber; Homer, of Cumberland, Md., Mrs. Charles Beal, of McKeesport; Mrs. Eli Shockey, of Wilkesding; Mrs. Fred Hook of Charlestown, and Mrs. Brent Henry of Meyersdale. He was a brother of F. S. Gerhard of Confluence, David Gerhard of Uniontown, and Freeman and Jacob Gerhard of Somerset. Thirty-nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren also survive.

Mr. Gerhard very faithfully served the Borough of Meyersdale as street commissioner for more than six years. In this capacity he stood for the best for his town, and leaves a host of sorrowing friends and neighbors, who mourn his passing.

Funeral services will be conducted at his late home at 412 Olinger street at 2:30 o'clock on Friday afternoon, by Rev. J. C. Little, pastor of the local Methodist Church, of which Mr. Gerhard was a member.

After an illness of over two years' duration, Oscar Emerson Younkin, a life-long resident of Confluence, died at his home Wednesday morning, Sept. 8th.

Mr. Younkin was married 42 years to Miss Ellen Nicklow, and to this union were born three children—one son and two daughters, all of whom survive him. They are: Mrs. A. C. Lee, Somerset; Mrs. James Reed, Confluence and Wilbert Younkin of Pittsburgh.

Funeral services were held at his late home, Rev. F. M. Kees, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of which Mr. Younkin was a member, officiating.

Mr. Younkin had been a member of the Confluence Lodge of Odd Fellows for many years, and his fellow lodge members attended the funeral services in a body, using their ritual at the grave. Burial was in the Kingwood cemetery.

Charles Trimpey

Esteemed Woman Answers Summons

But Mrs. W. L. Younkin Will Be Cherished Long in Remembrance.

Mrs. William L. Younkin passed peacefully away last Sunday shortly after 3 p. m. at her home three miles west of Kingwood in Upper Turkeyfoot Township, aged 67 years and 3 days, following an illness of a complication of ailments over a period of seven years.

She was a daughter of John and Elizabeth (Kreger) Nichalo, who resided in the historic Jersey settlement in Lower Turkeyfoot Township.

Her father, who was an estimable citizen, preceded her to the grave fifteen years ago. Her mother, a highly esteemed woman, at an advanced age, survives.

Mrs. Younkin was a devoted wife and mother, a helpful neighbor, and a life-long, consistent member of Old Bethel congregation of the Church of God in Upper Turkeyfoot Township.

Surviving Mrs. Younkin are her husband and the following children: Mr. Harvey C. Younkin, of Rockwood; Mrs. William Trimpey, Mr. Charles M. Younkin and Mr. Frank Younkin, all of Upper Turkeyfoot Township, and Mrs. Amelia Friend, of Friendsville, Md.

Brothers and sisters surviving are these: Mr. Calvin Nichalo and Mr. Joseph Nichalo, both of Lower Turkeyfoot Township; Mrs. Emerson Younkin, of Confluence; Mrs. Viola Faidley, of Lavansville, and Mrs. George Jones, of Ivyland, Bucks County, Pa.

Mrs. Younkin leaves also twenty-four grand children and five great-grand children.

Six of her grand children served as pall bearers. They were Messrs. Alvin Trimpey, Harry Trimpey, Edward Trimpey, Kenneth Younkin, Edward Younkin and James Younkin.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from Old Bethel Church of God, the Rev. E. L. Tantlinger, pastor of the departed, having officiated. Interment was subsequently made in the cemetery of that church by Funeral Directors Mills & Mickey of Rockwood.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our sincere thanks to all who so sympathetically assisted us during the death and funeral of Mrs. William L. Younkin, of Upper Turkeyfoot Township.

Especially are we grateful to neighbors and friends who proved so helpful to Mrs. Younkin during her long illness—kindnesses that will never be forgotten.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey C. Younkin and other relatives.

Mr. Edward Younkin from last Saturday till Tuesday was confined to the Leora Avenue home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Younkin, as the result of a painful abscess on one of his legs. He is now able to be about town with the aid of crutches. Mr. Younkin is one of the efficient operators in the Snyder Bakery at Rockwood.
